

WIEF YOUNG FELLOWS CLASS 2013

A Holistic Leadership Development Programme May12 – 18 2013 DURBAN

The much awaited 2nd WIEF Young Fellows is now confirmed for 12-18 May 2013. This week long holistic leadership development programme will take place in Durban, South Africa and will bring together 24 of some the most passionate young change-makers from all over the world. WIEF Young Fellows 2013 attracts a wide variety of young people ages 20-30, ranging from top graduates, social entrepreneurs, young CEOs, and junior professionals to civil society leaders, community organisers, artists and researchers.

The Programme is intended to nurture a first-class leadership mindset that focuses on overall human growth emphasising leadership management values, entrepreneurship, environmental and social awareness, creativity and the spiritual wellbeing of the individual. Participants are expected to learn important leadership tools, team work, and the culture of sharing ideas with a wider network.

WIEF Young Fellows 2013 hosts an interesting array of sessions including personal profiling, creative therapy, scavenger hunt, ThinkTalk and many other engaging sessions. For those interested to apply, please be reminded that the deadline for applications is 15 March 2013. Early applications are encouraged since there are only spaces for 24 participants. Participants need to only pay for their own travel expense to Durban, South Africa. All other costs are borne by the organizers
